

South Carolina Political Collections

University Libraries

University of South Carolina

Democratic Women's Council of South Carolina
Papers, 1967-1989

Volume: <1 linear foot

Provenance: Donated by Marcia Duffy

Citation Form: Democratic Women's Council of South Carolina Papers, South Carolina Political Collections, The University of South Carolina

Copyright: Copyright of the Democratic Women's Council of South Carolina Papers has been transferred to the University of South Carolina.

Organizational Note:

The Democratic Women's Council of South Carolina is affiliated with the Democratic Party of South Carolina and was organized to work "in harmony" with the Party, work for the election of Party candidates, initiate and carry out programs and projects on behalf of the Democratic Party and its candidates, and encourage women to become involved in the Democratic Party at all levels.

Women's clubs at the county level, such as the Democratic Women of Richland County, may become affiliated with the Council.

Scope and Content Note:

The papers include bylaws, minutes of meetings of the Executive Council.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

Bylaws and other organizational information

Filed as a foldered collection

General Papers:

1967-1968

1969

1970

1979-1989

n.d.

Membership Lists